

Tim & Emma Sheldrick, London. Bought in Gorjuse, nr Bohinj.

On falling in love with Slovenia while on holiday there, my wife and I decided to have a look around at some properties, never seriously thinking we'd buy as we thought the legal hurdles and other unknowns of buying in a foreign country would be too much. However, on meeting Justin and his team we soon changed our minds. He came across as very genuine and knowledgeable from the start and his colleagues, the same. Having guided us through the buying process our first impressions have been confirmed. The process was so smooth we're seriously considering expanding our portfolio within Slovenia and wouldn't hesitate to use Slovenia Estates again. His contacts in the building trade have also been valuable.
