Description

This is a newly renovated apartment in the heart of Ljubljana's historical Old Town. The apartment is located in a 400-year old heritage building and is perfectly placed just steps from incredible restaurants, cafes and tourist areas.
The apartment is situated at the back of the building which overlooks the beautiful courtyard and castle hill. This location makes it very quiet and removed from street noise. There is also an elevator in the building.

The two bedroom, two bathroom apartment has been completely renovated to a very high standard that blends modern amenities with historic Ljubljana charm. There is a open and comfortable living area that includes a flat screen television. A superb dining area and a fully equipped kitchen is where you can look up at the castle hill as you prepare your morning coffee. The master bedroom has a antique queen size bed and dresser and a small closet for hanging. The second bedroom has two single beds and a dresser. There is a washer and drier and quality towels and linens are provided.

This beautiful apartment is ready to offer you a feeling of home away from home, as you can enjoy the whole space.
